Time of Your Life (Grades 5-6)

Fifth and sixth graders are often in a time in their lives where what they have learned through childhood is becoming something personal and real for themselves. Our camp is designed to help our campers claim for themselves a God who is real; a Savior that is there for them; and, a Holy Spirit that fills them and moves in a real way in their lives. Our camp will also take advantage of the setting and freedom to be who we are. We will be swimming, fishing, playing games and sharing our talents in some creative ways. It will be a week where we can simply have, and celebrate, the Time of Our Lives. Cost $250.

August 1 at 1 p.m. to August 6 at 10 a.m.

Lighten Up! (Grades 6-8)

Come and enjoy 5 days of camping to have fun before starting back to school. Be prepared to laugh and just be silly. The only times we will be serious will be at meal times (we'll be serious about eating anyway) and the Bible where we will be serious about seeing what God says. The Bible has some great things to say about having joy and being joy-filled. Oh, we'll also be serious about sleeping. Pack up your troubles before you come but if they sneak out of your suitcase, we'll talk. And laugh some more. Cost $200.

August 8 at 1 p.m. to August 12 at 11 a.m.
